

Cookies Policy

Daimler Truck and Bus Australia Pacific Pty Ltd ("DTB") uses cookie technology on our websites, Customer Portals and Apps in order to record the preferences of users and provide information and services to website visitors. Cookies are small pieces of data that a website transfers to your computer for record keeping and experience customisation purposes.

Most web browsers are set to accept cookies. Cookies are useful to estimate the number of users and determine overall traffic patterns through our websites. Cookies are also used to record the preferences of users and optimise the design of our websites. They make navigation easier and increase the user-friendliness of our websites. Personal data can only be saved in cookies if you have given your consent or if it is essential for technical reasons, e.g. to enable a secure login.

Furthermore, third parties may utilise cookies to collect information about the content you view on DTB's websites, Customer Portals and Apps. DTB currently utilises third-party cookies in some sections of our websites, Customer Portals and Apps. The length a user's computer stores cookies is determined by the user's browser settings. We do not collect personally identifiable information about you, rather, we use cookies to track behaviours over the Internet and for the purpose of online remarketing.

Third-party vendors such as Google show our ads on websites across the Internet and based on past visits to our website, use cookies to serve ads that are relevant to you. Some of the tags that are used on our websites include, but are not limited to, container tags (such as Google tag manager), which include re-targeting tags and analytics tags. These tags provides us with aggregated knowledge and information on website behaviour and user preferences.

By using our websites, Customer Portals and Apps you consent to the use and storage of cookies on your end device. However, you can also view our websites without cookies. If you do not wish to receive any cookies, you may set your browser to refuse cookies. This may mean you will not be able to take full advantage of the services available on our websites and your user experience may be limited.
